The Doaktown Headwaters

NOVEMBER 2026 ISSUE #35

REMEMBERING OUR VETERANS

Honour those who have served and continue to serve to defend peace. Make November 11 the most unforgettable day.
We must remember. If we do not, the sacrifice of those one hundred thousand Canadian lives will be meaningless. They died for us, for their homes and families and friends, for a collection of traditions they cherished and a future they believed in; they died for Canada.

DOAKTOWN CENOTAPH

Did you know that the first cenotaph originated as a result of the government funding issued to the municipality of the area as a centennial project?
It was built around 1967. Since Doaktown was not incorporated until late 1966, municipality representatives, Wilson Jonah and Kenneth Robinson Sr., served on the Centennial Committee.
A piece of land was purchased from the United Baptist Church for one dollar provided the land was given back to them in the event the cenotaph was ever moved.

Gone, but never forgotten

Mayor's Corner

Our hearts and prayers are with the soldiers, the community of Wainwright, Alberta, and all the families affected during this difficult time. We hold everyone in our thoughts, especially those currently in hospital, and pray for their strength, comfort, healing, and recovery. Please remember that you are not alone during this difficult time, our community stands with you in solidarity.

As we enter November, our thoughts naturally turn to Remembrance Day—a time to reflect on the profound cost of our freedom and to honour the sacrifices made by our veterans and active service members.

I am deeply grateful to all those who have served and continue to serve our country. Their courage, dedication, and selflessness remind us never to take our freedom, peace, and security for granted. We owe them a debt of gratitude that can never truly be repaid.

I would also like to extend my personal thanks to the wonderful volunteers who helped install the banners honouring our fallen veterans throughout our community. Your contributions are sincerely appreciated by our entire community.

These banners serve as a meaningful tribute to the brave local men and women who served our country and sacrificed so much to protect the freedoms we enjoy today. Each banner represents a life, a story, and a legacy of courage and service that deserves to be remembered. Lest we Forget.

From remembering those who served our country to celebrating those who serve our community today, Doaktown has much to be proud of. Our fire department continutes to demonstrate exceptional dedication, team work and community spirit, both at home and on the world stage.
From October 19- 24, the Doaktown Firefighter Challenge Team competed at the 2026 World Championships in Las Vegas, delivering an exceptional performance. The team consists of: Jonathan Betts, Isaac Nason, Anthony Storey, Zack Giesbrecht, Stephen McAleer and Joey Giesbrecht.

The Doaktown Firefighter Challenge team are repeat World Champions, in the Municipal Class Division Showdown, Anthony Storey, Jonathan Betts, Isaac Nason, Zach Giesbrecht and Stephen McAleer brought home gold.
Congratulations to Joey Giesbrecht on his first showing at the games bringing home a silver medal.
Every team member has brought home medals in their individual , tandem, co-ed or relay classes.

Thank you to these members of the Doaktown Fire Department.

Looking Ahead:

The Future of the Historic Doak House

A new committee, known as the Doak Heritage Community Group, has recently been formed as part of the Central Miramichi Historical Society to explore the future of Doaktown's historic Doak House, with hopes of preserving this important landmark and bringing it back into community use. The committee consists of Krista Chase(Director of Regional Economic Development), Valerie O'Donnell, Belva Brown, Morris Green, Glen Harding, April Carroll, Jenny Chappell, Scott Chappell (member of Doaktown Village Council) and Julie Lyons. While still in its early stages, the committee is exploring opportunities for the property's future, with a focus on heritage preservation, tourism, education, and community involvement. The Doak House holds a special place in our community's history, and we look forward to keeping residents informed as plans develop. We also welcome community members to share their ideas, memories, photographs, or historical information about the Doak House as we work toward preserving this important piece of Doaktown's heritage for future generations.

A World Champion Once Waited Tables Here

Gene Tunney and the old salmon camps of Porter Cove

PONDS RESTAURANT

Gene Tunney

Eldred Bailey's Camps

The day's salmon at Eldred Bailey's

Gene Tunney was the heavyweight boxing champion of the world, the man who beat Jack Dempsey twice. In 1967, he was waiting tables at a party in Porter Cove, just across the road from Ponds. It was Eldred and Esther Bailey's 35 anniversary, held at the salmon camp Eldred still ran, and Eldred later recalled the champ serving the guests himself.

The camp began around 1930. Jack Russell built Camp Russell on the river and wrote about it in the Atlantic Monthly. His crew was local: Bert and Stella Pond, Boyd, Isabelle and Jack Hovey, Billy Price and Marshall Blackmore.

In April 1945, the Baileys arrived to take over. Marshall Blackmore met them with a horse and sled, and within a week Russell left them in charge. Esther ran the kitchen with Isabelle and Alice Hovey and Hattie Palmer. For nearly 20 years it was Eldred Bailey's Camps.

Across the road, the Pond family ran camps of their own - from Elmer Pond to Charlie Pond's Porter Kove Kamps to Keith and Marsha Pond's Pond's Chalets. The old Bailey cabins and the Jack Russell Lodge are still standing today.

Help us tell the rest of the story

We're putting together a history of Ponds and Porter Cove, and there are gaps only you can fill. Did someone in your family guide, cook or stay at the camps? Have old photos or guest books? Email booking@pondsresort.ca or come in and tell us.

Bring us a photo or a story, and dessert is on us.

When you order, hand us an old photo(or a copy we can keep)or a written or printed story about the Russell, Bailey or Pond camps. One per table, with a meal. Valid until Dec. 31, 2026.

The family of the late Billy Dines, would like to extend a heartfelt thank you to friends and family that shared our grief and honoring Billy's memory at his celebration of life. Thank you to our ambulance attendants, DECH nurses and doctors who took such compassionate care of Billy in his last few days. We were deeply touched by everyone who showed love and support. Thank you for your phone calls, food, flowers as well as memorial and monetary donations. To pastor Mike Burzek and the church family at Miramichi Valley Allegheny Wesleyan Methodist Church, thank you for your overwhelming support in all you did to make our grief easier to bear. To my family, who never left my side through it all, there are no words to express the comfort and love we felt. Thank you a thousand times and more to Weaver and Maxine, Vem and Linda, Bonnie and Irvine, Carrie and Joe, Gordon Dale and Susan, Brenda and Gene, Bertie and Gus, John and Cheryl and families. To Chipman Funeral Home, thank you for the compassionate care to all the family. Also to the doctors and nurses at the DECH Oncology Department for the care of Billy over the past three years. Last but not least, thanks to Gerald, who was there for me every step of the journey. Billy's brother, Randy and Jamie; niece, River; nephew, Jonny. Thank you so much for helping take Billy to doctor appointments over the years and helping to care for him so he could stay at home during all his cancer treatments. Mother, Grandmother, Sister, Aunt & Friend

A year has come and gone, and we miss you more than words can ever express, Mom. You were the shoulder to lean on for everyone, always wrapping us in your strength and understanding. You were everyone's safe place. You had a truly pure, kind heart that gave so freely without asking for anything in return. Though a full year has passed, the space you left behind is just as large, and your love is felt just as deeply. You are loved, missed, and cherished every single day. Rest peacefully, Mom.
